The merit of originality is not novelty; it is sincerity.—Carlyle.

Nick Bottom cannot play all the parts, work it as he may; there will be somebody else, and the world will be round.

When the Czar of Russia calls the bet with his combination of three kings, he may learn that the revolutionists hold four knaves and a bomb.

Former Governor Otero was given a big reception on his return to Santa Fe Saturday night, by political friends. He talks of locating at Las Vegas and engaging in business.

If the people of the lower valley wish to publish the facts revealed by tests and observation of the artesian wells, they will find Supervisor Wilson's books open at any time as required by the law. The publication of the facts would probably stop the circulation of rumors.

Even old Santa Fe shows signs of a desire to follow Roswell's example by organizing a commercial club and going after new things instead of resting on the glory of ancient ruins. The old town will soon be the capital of a great state, we hope, and it is time to sit up and take notice.

What low, poor, paltry, hypocritical people an argument on religion will make of men. Shuffle they will and crow, crook and hide, feign to confess here, only that they may brag and conquer there, and not a thought has enriched either party, and not an emotion of bravery, modesty or hope.—Emerson.

The conviction that the artesian water supply was not unlimited was what moved the Roswell Commercial Club in the first place to frame a law to require the capping of wells so that the water might be preserved for beneficial uses and not allowed to run to waste. So far no diminution in the supply is evident—but new wells are being bored every day, and there is wisdom in having a competent man on guard to see that the water is not wasted.

The Record still holds the opinion that the cost of artesian well supervision would be more justly borne by general taxation, since it is for the benefit of the entire community that the water is preserved from waste. Further, the increased valuation of land after a well is drilled is duly assessed against the well owner so that he pays his share of the general taxes in addition to the license tax on the well. However, the artesian well act serves to protect the most valuable resource of the Pecos Valley from waste, and so long as no better method of defraying the expense of supervision is available the present law should be strictly enforced. The end justifies the means.

The "Home Evangel" is the title of a new monthly publication just issued by Dr. C. E. Lukens, of the First Presbyterian Church of Roswell. It is in no sense a merely local paper, but will be devoted to the broader field of evangelism in which Dr. Lukens is soon to engage. Recognizing the fact that its circulation will extend over territory not naturally tributary to Roswell, the minister will make no special effort to secure local advertising. The Home Evangel will be issued in magazine form as soon as some stock left over from the "Roswell Presbyterian" is used up. As has already been announced Dr. Lukens has tendered his resignation as pastor of the local church in order to devote his time to the interests of homeless children of New Mexico and Arizona, under the direction of the National Children's Home Society. The work in the Territories will be organized by Dr. Lukens, the Society having until this time undertaken no such work in Arizona and New Mexico. The editor of the Record, who has known Dr. Lukens for some fifteen years, first learned of him as a Y. M. C. A. worker, and later heard of him at various times in Chicago as a settlement worker, then as a medical missionary to the Indians, and was surprised when he came to Roswell to find him employed as pastor of the Presbyterian church. We had thought of him always as a missionary, and believe that he is now to be congratulated on going back to the call that first led him out into the world to do good for his fellow man. Dr. Lukens is by nature an evangelist and a missionary and would not be true to himself in submitting to the restraints of a narrower field of labor.

FINE OFFICE FOR GATEWOOD.

Leases the Entire Second Floor of the Sparks' Building and Will Have it Rearranged.

Judge W. W. Gatewood has leased for a term of five years the entire second floor of the Sparks' building the front portion of which he has occupied for some time. He will have new partitions put in so as to have private offices for himself and two of his assistants in the front part of the office, a mammoth library, reading room and reception room in the middle and a large document room in the rear. It will be easily the most elaborate suite of office rooms in New Mexico when these improvements are completed and a full set of elegant carpeting and furnishings are installed.

Judge Gatewood has a new set of assistants to whom the public has not been introduced through the press. A. L. Love is an attorney of experience and success from Waxahatchie, Tex., who has been in his office for two months. B. C. Brown, formerly of Beaumont, Tex., but for some time in the law practice at New Orleans, arrived Sunday to take a chair as assistant. Robt. L. Graves, of this city, has been acting as assistant in the office for some weeks, and Miss Winifred Anderson, of Chicago, has been holding the place of stenographer there for two months. With this splendid corps of assistants Judge Gatewood will be able to handle his large practice and accommodate the callers at his office.

FOR CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Man Fined For Prodding a Horse With a Pitchfork.

J. W. Lyons, who lives in the east part of town, was arrested yesterday morning by City Marshal Rascoe on complaint of Mrs. Lyons, who accused her husband of prodding their horse with a pitchfork and striking him in such a manner as to cut the skin of the animal with the tines of the fork. When arraigned before Justice Bailey the defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $11.50. Judge Bailey dismissed him with the notice that if arrested again for cruelty to animals he would give him a sentence of 90 days in jail.

Deeds Filed for Record.

The following deeds have been filed for record recently in the office of Probate Clerk and Recorder F. P. Gayle.

Frank Wilson to Ella Stanfield, for $1,500, lot 12, block 4 north Spring River addition to Roswell (less a piece of land 6x8 feet in one corner) and water right from an artesian well. Mrs. Rosa Reiley and husband to J. R. Wartley, for $2,500, lot 1 block 26 of Roswell.

Warren Wagner recently completed for J. J. Hagerman a fine new well near the Hondo river east of the Slaughter ranch. The water flows seven feet above a six-inch casing, yielding over 1,900 gallons a minute. The water will be conveyed to the canal that waters the Hagerman district.

Reld & Hervey have filed suit in district court for the Hagerman Lumber and Hardware Company against S. W. Holloway, in which plaintiff asks judgment for $1,009.90, alleged to be due for merchandise delivered, and for 6 per cent interest, costs, etc.

F. P. Gayle, county recorder and clerk of the Probate court is confined to his room with illness. He has been sick for three days and it is feared he will have to go to Dallas for treatment.

City Attorney K. K. Scott, who has been at St. Mary's Hospital for the past ten days on account of a nervous attack, is much better. His wife is visiting in Tennessee.

Judge Sam Nixon, of Portales, was here yesterday looking after legal business in the land office and in district court. He returned home this morning.
